Super Combo Brush Systems!

The Super Combo Brush Systems delivers outstanding cleaning quality and productivity when cleaning residential and small commercial ductwork!

You just select the appropriate cable type (flexible or solid core), brush material (nylon or silica carbide) and brush size (8", 12", 18") that best suits the duct you need to clean.

You'll get better cleaning results than air washing or whip systems because the brushes are making significantly more physical contact with your duct surface!

Features & Benefits

- Flexible Super Cables (15' and 25') are design to clean ductwork with turns and drops.
- Stiffer Super Solid Core Cables (20' or 33') give you the control you need to clean residential main trunk lines and small commercial ductwork.
- Nylon brushes (8", 12" & 18") are designed for delicate and normal cleaning needs.
- Silica carbide brushes (8", 12" & 18") are designed for more aggressive cleaning needs.
- To maximize cable life we recommend you power these cables with a 14 volt 3/8" rechargeable drill that has a clutch.
- Replacement nylon and silica carbide media is available when the time comes to replace your worn out media.
- Flexible Super Cable only systems and Super Solid Core Cable only systems are also available (see below).
